Re: United States v. Dozortsev, et al.
Criminal Docket No: 08-0044 (CPS)

Dear Judge Sifton:

The government respectfully opposes the request for permission to travel of defendant Nikolai Dozortsev in the above-captioned matter. Dozortsev has already been determined to pose a significant risk of flight, as evidenced by the extremely restrictive conditions of his release which include a curfew, electronic monitoring and travel restrictions. As electronic monitoring only functions in the vicinity of one's residence, Pretrial Services would be unable to monitor the defendant's whereabouts during his purported vacation in Florida, thus granting the defendant, a person of substantial resources, ample opportunity to flee.

Respectfully submitted,

BENTON J. CAMPBELL
United States Attorney
